In the heart of our community stands a site steeped in history, both poignant and powerful. Originally constructed in 1932, the building that will soon become the Home of Harmony Project has served many purposes—from military use to a boarding school for young boys. This land holds stories of the Apache people, tales of resilience amidst historical trauma but also of unity and strength.

As we look to the future, it is with a spirit of healing and celebration that we invite you to join us in reclaiming this site. Not only as a beacon for community and culture but as a testament to the enduring spirit of the Apache people and our shared journey towards harmony.

The day will unfold with the momentous groundbreaking ceremony at 12:00 pm for the Home of Harmony Project, marking a new chapter in our collective story.
